- A. “TALKING ABOUT JESUS WITHOUT TALKING ABOUT SIN.”
This workshop explores and encourages talking about Jesus in ways that may fit local cultures and people. Stories of the presenter’s mistakes in mission, and small group discussion of ways to talk about Jesus, will be included, along with a list of fourteen different ways the Bible talks about Jesus. Dr. Richard Carter, presenter
- B. “MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR DOCTORS VISIT”
Dr. Chris Fallert will share practical tips to help you get the most from your visit to the doctor’s office. These suggestions should help you to partner with your doctor to optimize your care. The presentation will also give you greater insight into how physicians think and work.
- C. “EMBRACING LIFE'S CHAPTERS-LIVING WELL, DYING WELL”
By taking time to process and prepare for life's final chapter, we can live more abundantly and honor God in both life and death. Whether seeking personal guidance or ways to support others, this workshop offers a compassionate approach to navigating life's end. We'll explore a comprehensive approach to navigating this important life transition, as we consider questions and engage in conversation about emotional care, faith perspectives, and practical preparations. Terri Albrecht, presenter
- D. "THE LIGHTER SIDE OF BEING LUTHERAN: OUR GOD BRINGS JOY"
There are plenty of things in today's world to get us down and concerned, but we have a God who is bigger than all of our worries and concerns. In our time together we will look at a God who brings JOY. Sometimes we need to take a lighthearted look at what it means to be Lutheran. I hope you will be encouraged, challenged, and even a little more joyful having spent the time in this workshop. Rev. Craig McCourt, presenter

Tuesday, May 7, S.A.G.E.S. WORKSHOP II, 9:55 -10:55 a.m.

- E. "HISTORY IN SONGS"
Some songs from our past are based on historical events or people. We will analyze some of them and use them to learn some history. Singing along is permitted. Examples are "The Battle of New Orleans" and "The Sinking of the Edmund Fitzgerald." Tom Kuseske, presenter
- F. “TRENDS IN FRAUD & IDENTITY THEFT: A NEW AGE OF SCAMS”
Presentation description: Fraud losses are at an all-time high and are increasing year-over-year at an unprecedented rate despite anyone's prevention attempts. Conditions such as widespread social isolation, rapid advances in technology, adoption of new payment methods and insufficient consumer protections are all contributing factors. New scams emerge almost daily, however, often using the same proven psychological tactics. Knowing about these makes people far less likely to be victimized and lose money. With fraud losses skyrocketing in our country, now is the time to shift your mindset about the vulnerabilities in the people you serve, the risks for yourself and your family, and how to defend against these crimes. Jay Haapala, presenter.
